Graduate School Applications

What you need to know...
After this...

• Know what to do
• Know when to complete tasks
• Understand perspective of the reviewers
• Specific information related to WVU’s application
What should you be doing now?

1. Think about what you want in your graduate school experience
   • Size of program
   • Place of program
   • Experiences available during program
   • Cost
2. Identify programs that meet your criteria
   • ASHA EdFind
3. Review their application requirements
4. Create a schedule of due dates
About CSDCAS

https://help.liaisonedu.com/CSDCAS_Applicant_Help_Center
Things to understand

• What do those program deadline requirements mean?
  • Blue, orange, green, white, WHAT?
  • Submitting transcripts

• Who should I ask for a recommendation?
  • Academic vs. Professional vs. Personal
• What do I write in my personal statement?
  • What is the purpose of this?
  • What makes you different from your peers?
  • How do you know you will be successful in graduate school AND in your career?
The basics for WVU’s application
• Deadline is February 1 (VERIFIED)
• Making requests to faculty
  • Email or in person?
  • Provide them some information
    • List of schools (and the deadlines) – note which ones are online versus mailed
    • Resume
    • Other relevant information (e.g., unofficial transcript)
• Consider coming to the Open House
  • On-Campus
  • Virtual
Dates for 2018-2019 applications

• Feb 1 – Application deadline (all materials submitted and VERIFIED)
• Feb 22 – Open House (SLP Interviews; AuD Program Tour)
• April 15 – Decision deadline